gro, but to Italian prestige in the Adriatic Sea. The whole idea is summed up in the fact that Mount Lovcen dominates the Austrian naval port of Cattaro, and Cattaro controls the Dalimation Coast. To reduce Cattaro and its guardian forts at Vermatz, and to force the Austrian fleet hiding in the "bocche di Cattaro" out into the open sea has been a prime objective of the Allies since the war be-For from behind the mountain islands, which obstruct the Gulf of Cattaro, has issued the Holland and Lake submarines, which successively sank the French battleship Leon Gambetta and the Italian armored cruisers, Amalfi and Giuseppe Gari-

Before Italy entered the war the French and British fleets guarded the Adriatic. The English kept watch at Pola and Fiume, and the French at the "bocche di Cattaro," mouths of Cattaro. In October, 1914, the French satters hauled four 4.5-inch naval guns to the summit of Lovcen and forced the Austrian ships out of the Bay of Tevdo, and demolished some of the Austrian forts at Vermatz. Their guns would not reach to the "boeche di Cattaro," but emplacements had already been built on loveen for the reception of heavy guns, when on May 23, 1915, Italy declared war and took over from England and France the guardianship of the Adriatic.

Montenegrin Infantry then occupied Lovcen and patiently waited for the Italians to do something. There were the emplacements for 6-inch guns left by the French from which a well directed fire could have reduced Vermantz and cleared the approaches to Cattaro in a few hours.

On Dec. 18 it was unofficially an nounced that the Italians had started a strong naval expedition against cupied with heavy guns, and that this expedition would co-operate with the 'satisfactory" forces landed at Durazzo and Aviona on the Albanian

Since then nothing has been heard of this naval expedition The Montenegrin infantrymen on Lovcen have evidently waited in vain. Nothing but the forcing of the heavily mined waters of the "bocche di Cattaro"-a feat unthinkable after the Dardanelles flasco-can now relieve the situation, for, while Vermatz points its gens down from a height of 1,600 feet, the Austrians with 6-inch guns on the French emplacements can reach clear to the Adriatic. Moreover Lovcen is only six and one-half miles from Cettinje, the capital of Montent-

"Peace and War" will be the topic on which Mr. Golstein will speak subject under three headings, giving

What causes family disruption? What solution do Catholics offer for divorce and kindred modern evils? of our time? How would Catholics pean war prove Christianity to be a failure? What is needed to establish and maintain an enduring peace for nations? What has the church done to international peace; What can she do today? Does obedience to the pope in matters of faith and morals conflict with the patriotic duty of Catholics to their country? Is there a higher form of patriotism than that taught by the Catholic church? These are some of the questions which Mr.

es that again last year they were sent out on the same mission and the series of lectures from year to year is likely to prove a permanent feature in the publicity work of the organizaion. David Goldstien has lectured ex tensively on Socialism and is considered a brilliant speaker on the subject from the Catholic standpoint. He was the man who offered Eugene V. Debs $500 if Mr. Debs would meet him in a public debate on Socialism as Mr Debs sees it. Mr. Debs declin-

TRACED IN FIRE.

Glow Pictures Are Spectacular and Easy to Make,

To make glow pictures forty parts of saltpeter are added to twenty parts of gum arabic, and the whole is dissolved in forty parts of water. An ounce or two of this mixture will be sufficient to prepare a good many pictures. A few sheets of white paper should next be secured, and this should be rather thin, similar to that which is used for typewriting.

Now take a clean pen and draw the picture on the paper, using the solution, which should be slightly warmed by standing the bottle in hot water. Anything may be delineated, the only essential point being that all the lines must connect. The final line should be drawn down to the corner of the sheet, and this spot may be indicated with a pencil cross. Hang the sheets up to dry, and when the process is complete the lines are practically invisible.

My wife felt weak and was easily tired and was also troubled with various pains. but since she took Peruna she is well and strong."

To bring up the picture first of all urn down the borders of the sheet of paper in such a way that it is raised above the surface which will not be in jured by the slight smoldering of the paper. Get a match and light it, placing the slowing end of the point where the pencil cross was made on the sheet.

A trail of red fire will at once start o burn out the picture, following the lines which have been drawn. No other part of the design catches on tire save that which has been treated with the solution. Finally the picture stands ip in strong black lines, and the effect is very curious. There is absolutely no danger from fire in this little experiment.-Cleveland Plain Dealer.
